Your Data Governance Score

Data Denier

Your institution is sitting pretty—pretty behind the times. As the world of higher ed marches steadfastly into the data revolution, you're still juggling multiple spreadsheets and arguing about the number of students enrolled for the coming semester. Time for the journey to begin.

Barely Begun

You're starting to make headway. Maybe there's an evangelist, and people are starting to take notice. But there's no coherent plan, and no-one is taking steps toward an enterprise-wide data-asset revolution. You need more guidance and guardrails, but at least you're on your way.

Gathering Steam

You've got your committees and stewards; you've got a plan. Someone's leading the charge and people are plodding along--but mostly at higher ed's typically glacial pace. Although you've got the right folks beginning to line up, you just need the right approaches and structure to push them over the line.

Leading the Pack

When it comes to data initiatives, you're ahead of the curve. You've got standards and documentation, stewards and evangelists. Your data is reliable, it's inflecting decisions, and the institution is deriving strategic value from your hard work. It's hugs and smiles--not doom and gloom--when the data folks walk into the room.

Data Dominance

What data problem in higher education? Your university is humming with the excitement of seamless data flows careering through the institutional ether. Data-driven decision-making feeds off clean, secure data, and silos are a thing of the past. "Student success" and "Institutional Efficiency" have replaced traditional business concerns, and the institution is always looking for new ways to add to central data, and leverage it for innovation. Well done you, Data Hero.
